

HIGH SCHOOL BOY HELD FOR ASSAULT

Kenneth Washburn, 17, Student at Webb, Accused of Attack on Miss
Alma Hilligoss

AGED WOMAN IS INJURED

Claims She Recognized Washburn
as Assailant, Which Caused Arrest—Motive Not Determined

Kenneth Washburn, age 17, a student of the Webb high school, was arrested this morning by Sheriff Hunt and Police Chief Blackburn on a charge of assault and battery, filed in the circuit court, and resulting from an alleged attack on Miss Alma Hilligoss, on Monday evening.

Officers were notified Tuesday morning of the affair but the person who was accused was in Indianapolis attending the state fair, and he was arrested this morning at the school.

Miss Hilligoss lives alone on a farm southwest of Rushville a short distance. She is said to be past 60 years of age. The Washburn boy lives in the same neighborhood on the Weeks farm, and had been assisting her on various occasions about the farm work.

Monday night Miss Hilligoss was in the barn lot milking, when a man appeared, wearing a mask over his face. He struck her and threw her to the ground, and when she attempted to scream, he threatened to kill her, according to the officers. She also was choked and beaten, the officials say.

An automobile coming along the road, made the turn at the home, and the lights from the machine are said to have flashed in the direction of the two. Miss Hilligoss took advantage of the light, according to the officers, and jerked the handkerchief from his face, and he ran away into the darkness. She told the officers that she recognized him plainly and this caused his arrest.

Miss Hilligoss suffered a dislocated shoulder, many bruises about her body, and cuts and bruises on her face, as the result of the attack, it is declared.

The motive of the attack was not determined, as to whether it was an alleged criminal assault, or for the purpose of robbery.

The youth, when arrested this morning, denied being the person wanted, and stated that he was innocent.

Miss Hilligoss was removed from her home, where she lives alone, to the home of her brother-in-law, Will L. King, who lives on the Shelbyville road, just a short distance from Rushville.

MAYOR GIVES REASON FOR RELEASING ADAMS

Says Prisoner Had Promised to Give Information About Where he Purchased Liquor

OUT OF HIS JURISDICTION

Mayor Walter Thomas, today stated that he felt he was justified in permitting Omer Adams to be released from jail Sunday morning without bond, following his arrest of the night before on charges of violating liquor laws.

After his release by the mayor, the defendant was then charged with an affidavit in the circuit court by Prosecutor Ketchum, where bond in the sum of $2,000 was provided. Mayor Thomas stated that he released the defendant because he had promised to reveal the names of the parties from whom he had bought the liquor, and would also provide other information concerning bootlegging activities if he would be permitted to plead guilty to a charge of intoxication, and it was upon these terms that Mayor Thomas gave him his release.

The Mayor stated that the defendant would sign a paper Monday morning before the prosecutor setting out these facts, but as it happened, the defendant was rearrested on an affidavit in the circuit court, and the jurisdiction removed from the city court.

OCTOBER 1 FLY-FREE

State Entomologist Advises Wheat
Shouldn't Be Sown Until Then

October 1 is the fly-free date for Rush county, according to a letter received today by the county agent from J. J. Davis, state entomologist who pointed out that wheat planted before that date might be infected with the Hessian fly and be a menace to other growers who observed the fly-free date in sowing.

A letter from J. J. Davis, state entomologist says: Hessian Fly is much more abundant in most sections of Indiana than last year and it would certainly be admirable to give publicity to the matter and urge all wheat growers to sow at the right time, which is after October 1, in Rush county. Every field sown before this date is likely to be a menace to other wheat growers next spring.

USUAL FIGHT MADE ON COUNTY AGENT

Controversy Over $1,500 Appropriation Hinges on Necessity of Annual Petition

DIFFERENT LEGAL OPINIONS

Rush County Farm Bureau Directors
and Other Farmers Protest Preposal to Abolish Office

Interest in the second day's session of the annual meeting of the Rush county council, meeting to make annual appropriations for county expenses, today, centered in the fight on the appropriation of $1,500 for the county agent's office.

The council was still in session at a late hour this afternoon and it was not learned what disposition was made of the matter.

The controversy hinged on a question of law—as to whether it was necessary to petition the council each year for the appropriation and to accompany the petition with $500, as provided in the law of 1913.

Most of the morning was taken up with the argument, in which township directors of the Rush County Farm bureau, together with a dozen or more other farmers, spoke in favor of retaining the county agent.

A. L. Gary and John A. Titworth, appearing not as attorneys, but as interested citizens who have an interest in the agricultural industry, both made arguments for the retention of the county agent.

Will Logan of Noble township presided and called on the speakers who argued before the council. Others who spoke were Claude Sears of Center township, Bert Benner of Mays, Lowell Norris of Noble township, Donald D. Ball, former county agent, and Mr. Logan.

Every township of the county was represented by the delegation of farmers who assembled this morning when it became known Tuesday afternoon that the council

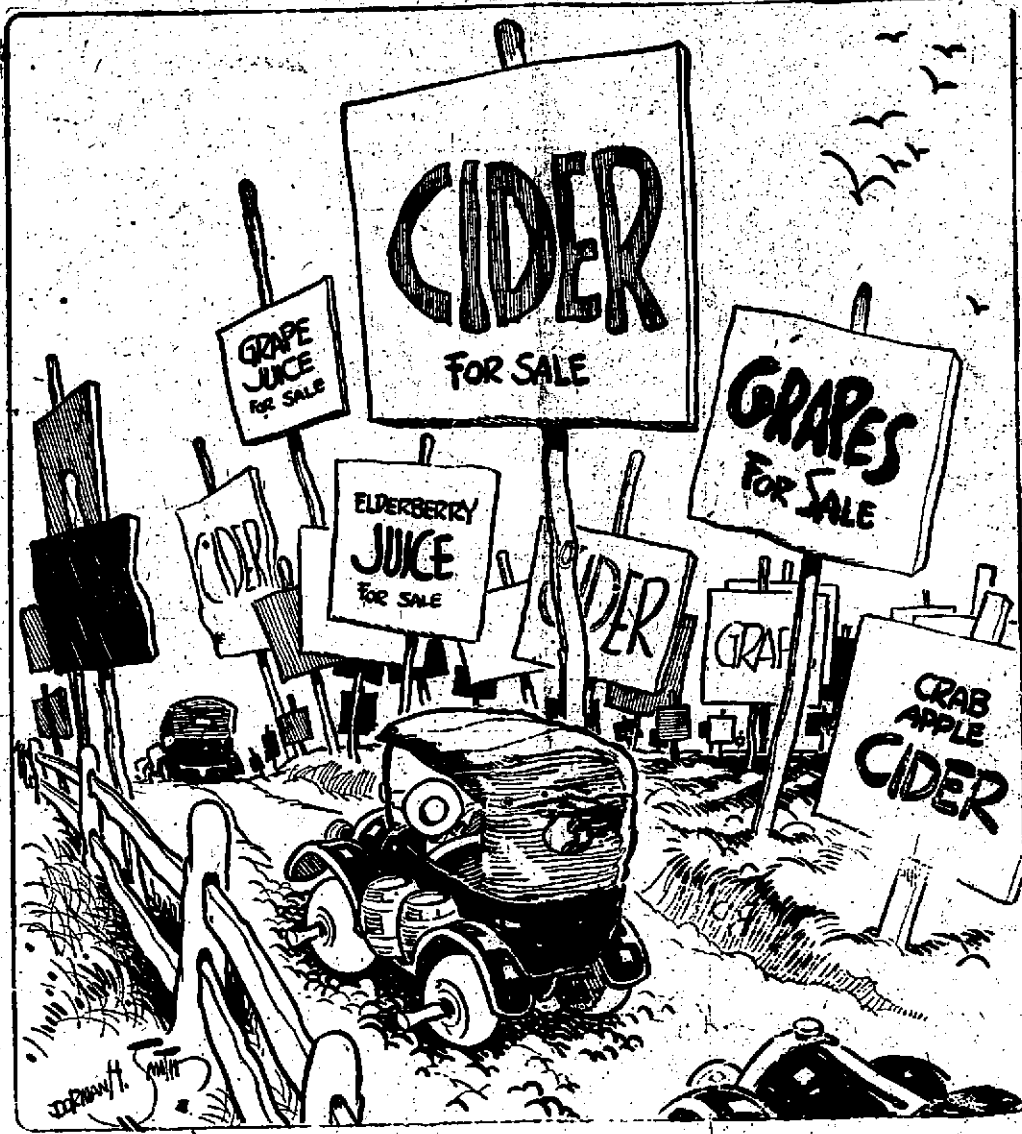

Banner Stalk of Corn

A stalk of corn out of the ordinary is being exhibited at the county agent's office in the court house, because of its height and size. It was grown by Albert Trager, tenant on a farm in Richland township owned by W. D. Root of this city.

The stalk is thirteen feet, ten inches high, with a girth of six and a half inches 23 inches above the ground, and of five and a half inches fifty inches above the ground. The large ear is seven feet above the ground and nature provided the stalk with three sets of brace roots. Ordinarily a corn stalk has only two sets of roots. The weight of the stalk without the roots is nine pounds.

Those who have seen the extraordinary stalk have marveled at it because it is so far above the average in all its dimensions. It is doubtful whether such a stalk of corn was ever grown in Rush county.

THE WET SEASON HAS SET IN

MORE THUNDERSTORMS ARE DUE IN INDIANA

No Relief From Heat Following
General Rainfall Tuesday Night—
High Temperatures Prevail

RAINS OF BENEFIT TO CROPS

More thunderstorms are due for Indiana tonight, the weather bureau predicted today.

A general rain fell in the state last night, Lafayette had the heaviest downpour with 1.20 inches.

Temperatures were still above normal for this time of year. Vincennes reported a temperature of 103 yesterday, and little relief from the rain.

The high temperature in Indianapolis yesterday was 88.

No relief from the intensive heat was apparent locally, following heavy rains throughout the county Tuesday night.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 9.—The heavy rains of last night in this forecast area will mean hundreds of thousands of dollars to farmers according to weather bureau reports today.

Rain continued in some parts of this territory today. In Chicago the rainfall totaled nearly one inch, and it was equally as heavy in other sections of this territory.

The corn crop has been helped by the rain. Early planted grains now at the ripening stage, derived little benefit, it was reported. The severe deterioration may be expected in this class.

INQUIRY INTO HANCE SLAYING BEGUN TODAY

Delaware County Grand Jury Opens
Investigation of "Vengeance Murder" By Chapman Gang

NEW EVIDENCE REPORTED

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 9.—The Delaware county grand jury today began its investigation of the slaying of Ben and Mary Hance, betrayer of Gerald Chapman. The two were shot to death on a country road near Muncie last month.

In his dying statement, Hance gave George "Dutch" Anderson, pal of Chapman, and Charles "One Armed" Wolfe, as the assailants.

That additional evidence has been uncovered which may lead to the indictment of a person or persons, who secreted Anderson following the double murder, was intimated by Judge Dearth, in his statement to the jurors.

The court said that witnesses who had not appeared before the coroner's inquest, were not available and that indictments should be returned if the evidence showed certain persons had aided Anderson in his apparent successful escape.

The verdict of Coroner Kilgore will not be made public until the grand jury investigation is completed. However it is understood that the coroner will find that Ben and Mary Hance died from gun shot wounds inflicted by Anderson. Wolfe is named as an accessory. Thirty one persons were witnesses before the coroner. The case will contain 751 typewritten pages.

The Rush county boys' livestock judging team participated in this contest, but evidently did not figure in the winnings.

CAMPAIGN FUND GOAL IS $50,000

Decided Effort to Locate State K. of
P. Home Will be Wasted Without at Least This Much

COMMITTEES ARE AT WORK

Banquet Will be Held at M. E.
Church Next Tuesday Evening to Start Pledges to Fund

The intensive campaign to locate the Indiana Knights of Pythias home in Rushville will get under full steam next Tuesday night when citizens of the community meet at a banquet in the basement of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, at 6:30 o'clock.

At the same time arrangements were being completed for the banquet, a general committee met and after canvassing the situation, decided that the goal of the campaign should be $50,000.

The banquet will be the opening wedge on the drive for the fund, which the committees hope to have in hand by October 6, when the Indiana grand lodge meets and when the selection of the proposed home site is scheduled to be made.

The committee arrived at the conclusion that Rushville could not be a contender of any consequence without a fund of at least $50,000 to offer for the home.

Other things, in addition to the bonus offered, will be taken into consideration, but in this respect, it is felt that Rushville is eminently well-qualified, due to its central location in Indiana, its ability to provide a site that will measure up to the standards as to soil fertility and to provide good school facilities.

In some quarters, the question has been raised as to whether the school city of Rushville would have to stand the expense of providing school facilities for children in the home. It is stated that this expense would be born by the school units in which the children lived before being sent to the home, just as a pupil living outside the corporation limits of Rushville pays a transfer fee. This is the policy followed at the Indiana Odd Fellows home, at any rate, it is stated on good authority.

The several committees are at work on different phases of the campaign that have come up. An option committee hopes to have some options by the time of the banquet and the pledge committee hopes to have some good sized pledges ready for announcement.

It has been tentatively decided that the pledges will provide for payment of the subscriptions to the home fund one year from the time Rushville is selected as the location for the institution. Twenty-five percent is to be paid when Rushville wins the campaign, the remaining three fourths falling due in quarterly payments every four months.

It is announced that the banquet next Tuesday evening will be for men only and that everyone who is interested in seeing the project made a success will be welcome to attend. No secret is made of the fact that the banquet is being held to obtain pledges on the campaign fund and those who attend may come prepared to be solicited. It is pointed out that the campaign is a public one.

WILL MAKES MANY LARGE BEQUESTS

Cash Disposed of by C. G. Clark, Former Rushville Man, Amounts to $14,500

IN ADDITION TO PROPERTY

Many $1,000 and $500 Gifts to Christian Churches and Denominational Institutions

A will providing for the distribution of several thousand dollars, including many bequests in Rushville, has been admitted to probate in the Rush circuit court on petition of Guy Leonard Clark of Miami, Fla., administrator of the estate of Crittenden G. Clark, former Rushville business man.

Mr. Clark died several weeks ago, leaving a vast estate, most of which is located in Florida, where he resided during the last few years of his life. The will was dated May 7, 1923, and the legal action was taken in Dade county, Florida, but on account of local heirs, the will also was asked to be probated here, and has been spread on the record. Cash bequests in the will amount to $14,500.

No amount of the estate is set out in the will, but judging from the bequests, the deceased had accumulated a fortune. He was in the milling business in Rushville, and was the founder of the Rush County Mills. Following is a summary of the items as contained in the will:

To the Christian church of Miami, Fla., the sum of $1,000.

To the Orphan's Home of the Christian denomination at St. Louis, the sum of $1,000.

To the old folks home of the Christian denomination at Jacksonville, Fla., the sum of $500.

To the old folks home of the Christian denomination, now being built at Louisville, Ky., the sum of $500.

To the old folks home of the Baptist denomination at Louisville, Ky., the sum of $500.

The Christian church, the Baptist church and the Methodist church at Summer Shade, Metcalf county, Ky., each are given the sum of $500.

To the Rushville Public Library a bequest of $500 is given.

To the Salvation Army of Rushville, a bequest of $500 is given.

To his brother, Joseph Clark of Summer Shade, Ky., a bequest of $1,000 is given.

To Fannie D. Brooks of Rushville, "for many years was a most faithful employee," is given $1,000.

To Meta Priest of Rushville is given the sum of $500.

To Katherine Nevill, a sister of his former wife, is given $500, upon condition that she is living in Indiana at the time of her death, then a monument is to be erected at her grave for a sum not exceeding $200, and the balance of the $500 is to be paid to her.

RIDOUT BOY IS SENT TO STATE REFORMATORY

Youth Who Saved His Way Out of Jail and Was Recaptured, Pleads
Guilty to Larceny

TERM ONE TO EIGHT YEARS

Leon Ridout, the 17-year-old youth who spent the summer in jail on a larceny charge, and escaped one day last week by sawing the bars at the jail, only to wander back and again be lodged in jail, was arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks on the charge, and pleaded guilty.

The youth was given a sentence of from one to eight years at the reformatory, where he will be taken shortly by Sheriff Hunt to begin serving his term.

The boy admitted stealing $6 from a residence in Water street early in the summer. He was unable to give bond and had to remain in jail all through the vacation period. In some manner he was given a saw last week, which he used in sawing his freedom, but instead of remaining away, he returned and was taken into custody. The boy is afflicted with asthma, and his physical condition is described as being weak.

seriously considered not making the appropriation for the county agent. It was said this afternoon that John H. Kiplinger, county attorney, had advised the council that a petition and $500 was necessary each year to get the county agent appropriation. Mr. Kiplinger was out of the city this afternoon and this could not be confirmed by him.

Mr. Tittsworth argued that a petition was not necessary each year, where a county agent was engaged, and he cited two decisions of the Indiana supreme court upholding the law which makes it mandatory for the county council to appropriate a minimum of $1,500 for the support of the county agent's office. The remainder of the expense is met by state and federal appropriations and the county farm bureau.

Mr. Tittsworth read from the decision in the Jasper county case, in which the supreme court held that the law did not intend that a petition should be refiled every year when the county agent had been operative in the county.

Mr. Tittsworth made a vigorous defense of the county agent's office, pointing out it was worth everything that it costs simply as a clearing house for information regarding farming, which is the outstanding business of the county.

Mr. Tittsworth stated that acre for acre, Rush county was the greatest county in the world for diversified agriculture and that any industry as valuable to the community as farming is to Rush county, should have someone at its head to organize it.

He pointed out that everyone was interested in farming and showed that the $1,500 appropriation would mean only three cents in taxes on each $1,000 of taxable property, or an average of twenty cents per taxpayer.

Mr. Tittsworth recalled that Rushville business men raised $1,500 out of their own pockets last year to promote agriculture and had to consult with the county agent. They would have been lost without his assistance, he pointed out.

He referred to Rushville business men investing $300 in seed corn for the Rush county boys corn club, with the result that a generation of corn growers will grow up to excel the present generation. He cited this to show the interest of men not actually identified with farming, and spoke of the co-operation of the county agent in this and similar enterprises.

"It would be a backward step to abolish the county agent's office," he asserted.

Through the efforts of the Rushville Boosters club, cooperating with the county agent, outsiders have been brought to Rush county to invest in land, thus taking care of the surplus and tending to bring up the value of land.

Mr. Tittsworth asserted the county agent was of more value than any man in the county and said that he saved his salary over and over every year.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
This thought should be a practical heritage in every home.Jesus said:—As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them. St. Luke 6:31.Prayer:—Help us, our Father, to do right by Thee, and then it will be natural for us to do right by our brothers.

Insect Enemies

Farmers sometimes complain of birds eating their crops, forgetting that in comparison to the good done,
the feathered policeman of the fields is the greatest friend of mankind.Following complaint of an Iowa farmer, two pheasants were killed and examined, and 200 cutworms were found in them. This is it demonstrated how the birds are constantly working, not alone for the producers of food, but for every human being.While thoughtless men roam the fields in search of game and call it sport, the United States Department of agriculture is waging a continual war against insect enemies who threaten to gain the upper hand and convert this country into a barren waste.Man with all of his boasted intelligence has been unable to make any headway against the pests and he has had to turn to his insect allies for aid.The boll weevil, withstanding all man-made attacks, is routed again and again by parasites, ants, and other tiny enemies who seek it out on its own plane, destroying in a year immeasurably more weevils than man destroys with all his intelligence and machinery.The department of agriculture has scientists searching the remotest corners of the earth for parasites and insects which may be brought to the United States to fight pests here. Bugs discovered possibly in the wilds of interior Asia or Africa are carefully transported to America and planted in the hope they may develop into annihilators of other insects.The original introduction of pests
like the boll weevil or the Japanese beetle into this country was accidental and the strange insects flourished because their natural enemies were not introduced with them to keep them down. The department is constantly searching for the natural enemies of foreign insect pests and whenever found the enemies are brought here to be enlisted in the continual war being waged.But in spite of the supreme efforts being made, the depredations of insect pests continue to increase annually. In this fact the department sees the grave danger for the future.
And it is for this reason the department hurries to attack the first appearance of new insects in this country, anxious to subduethem before they become such a menace as the boll weevil became.

Standard of Comfort

It has been said that the United States has no distinctive type of architecture, literature, art and other things which the old world claims as its own. We will not argue this question but we would like to point out a step in progress toward human comfort which is distinctively American, namely, the age of electrical conveniences.What American would want to live in the average European dwelling or farm house? Even the hotels, except the more expensive ones, have few or none of the conveniences or luxuries which in this country are considered necessities in the smallest homes. While we may not have developed a distinctive national type of architecture in the United States, we have developed a standard of house comfort which will be referred to in history as the "electrical home" period.

Cornerstone of Commerce

The fire insurance business of today represents the evolution of nearly 260 years, and during this long period it has become closely intertwined with the very fabric of the industrial and social life of the world; it is the cornerstone of commerce. In its ramifications, it affects directly and indirectly every individual in the country. It could not be otherwise, in view of the fact that outstanding fire insurance approximates the tremendous sum of $100,000,000,000.The announcement that fire insurance companies last year paid losses amounting to $470,000,000 is slightly misleading. These losses were not paid by insurance companies but by property owners, for every fire loss is collected in insurance rates.If American people would only reduce their carelessness by half, it would mean a great saving in insurance premiums.FIFTEEN YEARS

NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON.—Every time another country comes to terms with the United States concerning its war indebtedness to the latter it becomes just that much harder for France to continue stalling off a settlement.To that extent the recently concluded Belgian-American agreement, which otherwise isn't a very brilliant bargain for this nation, is a good thing.Probably it insures some sort of an arrangement when the French debt commission drops in at Washington in mid-September. The commission would look pretty foolish trying to make out that France can't do at least as well as poor little Belgium.ON the other hand the French certainly will ask as good terms as Belgium received.The Belgian compact lops off more than 200 millions in interest, and in the same ratio, France's debt
being much larger than Belgium's,
the former would get a cancellation amounting to something like a billion and a half—quite an item.The Belgian reduction was granted on the strength of promises made by President Wilson when he was in Paris. So far as the records show, he didn't make similar promises to France, but you can't tell—the French may raise something up yet.They have wonderful memories for casual promises of a sort calculated, if kept, to save them money.
Another thing, during the next ten years the Belgians will make only nominal payments. France is sure to demand a like extension.Of course it remains for Congress and parliament, in Brussels, to ratify the Belgian-American agreement. Parliament can be depended on to do so.
It's too favorable a deal, for the Belgians, to be balked at, on their side—62 years to pay up in, ten years before substantial repayment starts, 200 millions off and 3 1/2 per cent interest.In Congress there may be some kicking. Still, President Coolidge had "O. K.'d" the dicker and the chances are he'll have votes enough to get the national legislature's approval. Everybody's sorry for Belgium anyway.Rush County Federated Club NewsIt is pretty close on the heels of summer and surely in the midst of heat that September comes again,
and it is doubtful whether anyone is quite ready to lay the wool bathing suit away in moth balls and dust off the neglected book, preparatory to any kind of literary research.However that becomes our next task and the mind and body will respond just as they have every year, preceding, because every year sets a task and a goal, and women, of all folks, are not apt to fall short of at least conscientious effort.This year we have our domestic,
local and national problems again
to discuss among ourselves, looking forward to a better day in each sphere. We need study to equip our minds for sensible thinking, and so the club year opens, full of work, full of purpose, full of hope.The printed programs manifest an extraordinary ability on the part of the committees, who compiled them—
they offer all that could be wished by any club woman, if she will do her utmost to develop their fullest possibilities. This year has the brightest and most stimulating prospects of any year as yet. Our national and state departments have never had their work so well in hand. They can help us to help ourselves if we will but cooperate with them, as it is our privilege to do. Wewont fail. 1925-1926 is to be a decided step in feminine awakening.After all its great just to be alive and a woman. Make the most of it.

Friend Saved

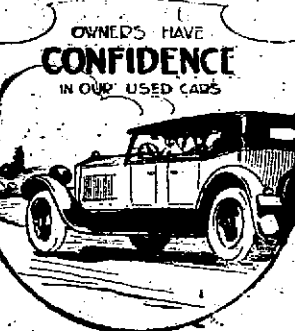

Mrs. Wilhelmy

"Overwork, worry, no appetite,
no sleep, I looked like a corpse," says Mrs. Mary Wilhelmy of St.
Paul, Minn., "and to add to my troubles, my physician advised an operation. A friend, however, asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-

shall see the improvement I eat well, sleep well, have gained in weight and strength and feel fine."
That is what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs.

GRID SEASON IS NOT FAR DISTANT

Football Players Will Soon be Out For Practice in Most State Colleges, Ready for Big Season

CONTESTS BEGIN IN OCTOBER

Jordan Field at I. U. Will Have New Turf, and 80 Aspirants For Team Places Are Waiting the Call

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 9.—Just a few days and the thud of the well known pigskin will be heard on the three athletic fields of Indiana University. The new turf in the stadium, Jordan field and the Indiana field will be available for practice.

Invitations numbering over 80 have been sent out to the most promising players and the sound of the first whistle should find the Crimson footballers, passing, punting, tackling, and running signals in making preparations for the opening game, Oct. 3.

A wealth of line material is expected to be at hand on the opening day while the backfield may need some shifting before it is selected for the season. The quarterback job may be the hardest for Coach Navy Bill Ingram to fill.

The pivot position will find Kelson, Henan and Dykhuizen fighting for this position. Berneske will again be located at guard while Walter Fisher, Bishop and Zaizer will scrap it out for the other berth.

A wealth of tackles will greet Ingram. George Fisher and William Zaiser, both letter men, will be back, while Hoblick, who played two years ago, plans to return to the fold of the Crimson. George Carstons and Clifford are a pair of other candidates who will bear watching. Clifford is the youth who showed up so good on the "frosh" last fall.

Sibley, Cusima, Maloy, Nassel Minson are nominees for wing positions. The first three saw action on the '24 schedule while Winston was the most promising of the yearlings.

Captain Marks, Salmi, Adams, Leovitt, Marker, Prasha, and Tobin are seeking backfield positions. Zivich, who made a letter two years ago, will attempt to earn a regular job again. From the freshman Coach Ingram should find Stamates, Fromouth, Ray, Gastineau, Newberry, Sente and the Corbin brothers worth while material.

With a new stadium in which to play and the great wealth of mater-

AGAINST BABE

Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, who says he will back Manager Miller Huggins to the limit in imposing a $5,000 fine and indefinite suspension on Babe Ruth, for alleged "misconduct off the field." He says Babe can quit the team if he wants to.

Indiana should be found near the top when the dedication of the new field takes place Nov. 21. Purdue will furnish the "Scrappin' Hoosiers" the opposition on this famous day.

Normal will be the first opponent of the season, facing the Ingram eleven, Oct. 3.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Vernon, Calif.—Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul light heavyweight, won a ten round decision from Bob Fitzsimmons, son of the former heavyweight champion.

Jersey City, N. J.—Johnny Kochanski, Bayonne featherweight, outpointed Jack Sharkey, New York, in a 10 round no decision bout.

Detroit—Luis Vinceniti, Chilean lightweight, has been signed to meet Sid Babarian, Detroit southpaw, in a ten round decision fight here Sept. 22.

Bluffton—A sun flower with eighty-seven blooms is being proudly exhibited by Charles Herhman of Rockcreek township.

Stated to Hold Posts

By HENRY L. FARRELL, (United Press-Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 9.—Despite many rumors that have been heard to the contrary, there will be few changes, if any at all, in the management of the major league baseball teams at the close of the current season.

It is a popular pastime in the closing days of the regular season to speculate about new managers for the teams that failed to do well during the season, but it is an unusual fact that this year, the managers of the teams which made the poorest showing are the most secure in their positions.

Managers of teams that have won pennants have been discharged in the past, as was the case with the late Pat Moran when he lost his job after winning a pennant with the Phillies, but there is no chance of anything like that happening this year.

By putting two and two together, many smart baseball men thought that Bill McKetchnie's job was in peril when Fred Clarke was brought back to the Pirates to sit on the bench and act as an advisory assistant to the manager. But even if the Pirates should fail to win the National League pennant, after having had one hand on the hunting, there is only a slight probability that McKetchnie would lose his job.

Barney Dreyfuss, president and majority owner of the Pittsburgh stock, is not in good health and he is not able to travel with the team as he did in past years. He brought back Clarke to act as the assistant president and to have him ready to step into the active handling of the business affairs of the club in any emergency that might arise. Sam Dreyfuss, the young son and heir of the Pirate president, has not had enough experience to handle one of the most valuable pieces of property in baseball. Clarke is said also to be a large stockholder in the club.

Persons in close touch with the Pirate team insist that the most friendly relations have existed all season between McKetchnie and Clarke and that the former Pirate manager has offered advice only when he was asked for it.

John McGraw, of course, will be the manager of the New York Giants as long as he wants to remain in active service. He has not been in good health this year and it would be no startling surprise if he should decide to turn over a large part of the management next season to Hughie Jennings, his first lieutenant. McGraw was kept at the helm of the team this year, when he was really not able to serve, through the ambition to add more glory to his record by winning a fifth consecutive championship. If he fails he may decide to retire, although it will be no easy matter for him to disassociate himself with the active end of the club.

Wilber Robinson, president and manager of the Brooklyn Robins, said late in the season that he would not give up the active management of the club until his contract expires and it has one more year to run. There have been rumors that Wade Kilfiter, or his brother, Bill, who was deposed in mid-season as the manager of the Chicago Cubs, would manage the Robins next year, but Robby is said to have assured Zech Wheat, the veteran captain of the team, that the job would be his when Robby's contract expired.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn's star pitcher, let the Phils down with one hit and shut them out 1 to 0 in the first game of a double-header. Chick Nawks singled, and kept Vance from a perfect game but he died stealing and only 27 men faced Dazzy. Grimes drove in four runs and beat the Phils 4 to 3, in the second game.

Three runs scored in the first inning off Yde gave the Cubs a 3 to 2 victory over the Pirates. Alexander was safe all the way.

Sammy Gray rushed to the rescue of Slim Harris after three runs had been scored in the ninth, stopped the rally and the Athletics beat the Senators 6 to 4. It was the first victory for the Athletics in 3 games and it reduced the lead of the Senators to eight games.

One home run by Babe Ruth and two by Ben Paschael helped the Yankees to take a doubleheader from the Red Sox 5-4 and 7-4.

Uble held the White Sox to six scattered hits and the Indians won 4 to 2.

Sixteen hits off two pitchers enabled the Reds to win from the Cardinals 10 to 1.

Beating the Browns 11 to 1, the Tigers took possession of fourth place by four tenths of a point.

Home runs by Kelly and Frisch gave the Giants a 3 to 2 victory in the first game but the Braves copped the second 5 to 4.

SPORT CHATTER

Boston—Mark Koenig, young shortstop secured from the St. Paul American Association club, who played his first game yesterday for the New York Yankees will be used as a regular for the remainder of the season. "I like the way he handles himself. He can hit and field and knows what to do. I think he is a find," Manager Huggins said.

Saratoga Lake, N. Y.—Christy Mathewson, former Giant pitching star, is not in a serious condition but he will have to take a long rest, according to Dr. Edward Packard. Mathewson's condition became known after he had made an affidavit that he would not be able to answer a damage suit in Norwich, N. Y., for three months.

St. Louis—Kenneth Williams, hard hitting outfielder of the Browns who was beamed August 14 in Cleveland, will not be able to play for the remainder of the year. He has returned to his home in Oregon. Dr. Hyland, club physician said Williams suffered from spells of dizziness but would have no permanent injury as result of the beaming.

Chicago—With Rabbit Maranville as a private in the ranks under acting Manager George Gibson, local fandom is considering rumors that he will be traded before next season. Maranville was manager for a stormy two months and yesterday was "allowed" to resign. He did not play in yesterday's doubleheader and his status as a private in the ranks is problematic.

Some Swimmer

Richard Halliburton, of Memphis, recently swam the Dardanelles at the point where the Dardanelles and Lord Byron made his famous swim. He accomplished his feat against a high wind and a strong tide. He is said to be the only person who climbed the Japanese mountain, Fujiyama, alone in winter.

Society Events

The annual reunion of the Peck family will be held Sunday, September 13, at Brookside Park, Indianapolis.

—Miss Dorothy Beecraft went to Indianapolis this morning where she will enter Madame Blaker's school, as a senior.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pearce entertained a number of friends at their cottage on Lake Wawasee over last week-end, the party returning home by motor Monday evening. Mrs. Pearce closed her cottage for the summer and returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lookbill delightfully entertained Tuesday evening with a card party at their home in West Second street. Two tables of Five Hundred were in session during the evening and dainty refreshments were served as the closing feature of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jackson celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary Sunday at their home in North Willow street. A delicious dinner was served at the noon hour and was enjoyed by their two daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of this city.

The Barnes reunion was held Sunday at the home of Gertie Barnes near New Salem, with eighty-three relatives and friends present. At the noon hour a bountiful pitch-in dinner was enjoyed and the afternoon was spent socially. The reunion next year will be held the third Sunday in September, at Memorial park, this city.

Miss Lela Coers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coers of this county, and Russell Baker of Blue Ridge, Ind., were quietly married Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Main street Christian church parsonage, the Rev. B. F. Cato performing the ceremony. The wedding was witnessed by the mother and sister of the bride.

Next Sunday, September 13, the annual Hilligoss family reunion will be held at the home of Mrs. Jane Hilligoss VanPelt on the Knolls in Shelbyville. The home is located in the southeastern part of the city, and relatives planning on going in machines are requested to follow the traction line, south, and turn east with the traction line, which leads past the home.

The Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon, September 15, at two o'clock in the parlors of the church. This is the first meeting of the new year and the new officers will be installed at this time. A pitch-in dinner will be held in two weeks, following this meeting. The hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. D. C. Compton, Mrs. Ray Compton and Mrs. Chester Cross.

The Misses Goldie Newhouse and Carrie McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McManus and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Cross and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Newhouse planned a surprise pitch-in dinner Monday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gartin, at their home north of the city, the occasion being their fifteenth wedding anniversary.

The regular meeting of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church was held Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Much business of importance was transacted at this meeting, at which time it was decided to serve lunch at the Tom Chambers sale, September 25. Mrs. Roy Waggener had charge of the devotional period and the following program was given: two solos, Mrs. Marie Offutt; two readings, Miss Margert Winship; duet, Mrs. Earl Moore and Miss Wanda Wyatt.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Woman's Mission Circle of St. Paul's M. E. church was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. O. F. Bussard, at her home on East Sixth street. Officers for the ensuing year were elected at this time, with Mrs. H. D. VanMatre, being elected president. Other officers were: Mrs. Ray Compton, vice president; Miss Harriet Vredenburg, treasurer of home missions; Mrs. John Worthington, treasurer of foreign missions; Miss Louise Lyons, recording secretary, and Miss Florence Ball, corresponding secretary. At the close of the business session, the hostess served dainty refreshments to the guests.

The fourteenth Allender reunion was held at the old homestead, now known as the A. L. Gary farm, two miles west of Arlington Sunday, September 6. The attendance was not up to the average of former years, there being many who have been faithful in attendance year after year, that were not present. There were present relatives from Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Nebraska.

One of the most pleasing features of the day was the attendance of Mrs. Cordelia A. McKay of Carroll, Neb., who is in her eighty-third year of age. Mrs. McKay is a granddaughter of George Allender, Sr. Her attendance was the more remarkable from the fact that she with other members of her family, motored through to this state. A son, Oscar T. McKay and his wife, motored from Luveere, Minn., to Carroll, Neb., where his mother and sister, Mrs. W. H. Belford joined them, as did another sister Mrs. Claudius Seigler of Omaha, Neb. The entire trip totaled almost 1200 miles. Mrs. McKay and family are returning home this week, the aged lady having withstood the trip remarkably well.

After the basket dinner served at noon, a short program was rendered, which included several short talks by the new members in attendance, each of whom spoke in high terms of their appreciation of the acquaintanceships formed and of the privileges enjoyed. Several messages of greetings were read, among which was one from the Allender reunion which was held at Grafton, W. Va. A movement is started to establish the proper relationship between

END BUNION PAIN FOREVER

We Need to Suffer Another Day These Agonizing Torturing Pains

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflamed, swollen toe joints and get them down to normal and that is to apply Moore's Emerald Oil night and morning and people who suffer from such enlargements would be wise to reduce them before they reach a more or less chronic stage.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A CHANCE

The average person puts into his or her stomach just about twice as much food as the body needs or the stomach can digest. One of two things must happen—either the stomach weakens under the load or it must receive assistance, before it does weaken. Some people take time by the forelock because the stomach generally gives warning that it is being abused. These symptoms are gas, sour stomach, bloating, coated tongue and the like. When these symptoms appear take heed of the warning. Nature doesn't give these warnings unless they mean something. First stop overloading the stomach and secondly go to your druggist and ask for Di-Jo. A few Di-Jo Tablets will give instant relief and enable the digestive juices to do their work. If you insist upon eating what you want, keep yourself supplied with Di-Jo. It will remove part of the load which the digestive forces of the stomach have to carry. If you are troubled with constipation take Di-Jo. It is sold by all druggists and is recommended as the proper laxative to be used in connection with Di-Jo, if any is needed.
